

JUDICIAL OFFICERS ASSASSINATED

Within judicial district, were assassinated yesterday, twelve miles south of West Winnebago, in Franklin parish, while on their way to hold court at that place. The bearer of this information states they were shot seven times and their brains blown out. The murderers are not known, but it is thought personal, and not political differences led to the assassination. Crawford was a Radical and Harris a Democrat. Both leave

THE BROOKLYN FRAUDS.
Very Plain Charge to the Grand Jury.
 NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—Judge Moore charged the grand jury of Brooklyn to-day specially in reference to the recent city frauds. He said it appeared to him to be a public reproach that a man who steals fifty dollars is sent to the State prison while those who steal fifty thousand go free.

unds or been guilty of embezzlement ought to be punished. He urged them not to allow any personal or political considerations to deter them from duty.

FIRE COMMISSIONERS SENTENCED AND FINED.
The Jersey City fire commissioners, indicted for a violation of law in making a contract without advertising for proposals, entered a plea of non guilty to-day, and were sentenced to nominal fines with costs.

COMMISSIONERS OF PUBLIC WORKS ON TRIAL.

the same city, on similar indictments, was begun, and was in progress on the adjournment of the court.

MEETING OF THE ALDERMEN—TREASURER SPRAGUE'S IMPRISONMENT.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—A special meeting of the Brooklyn Board of Aldermen was held to-night. Mayor Howell notified the board of the resignation of City Treasurer Sprague, and nominated in his place ex-Alderman Cunningham, who was unanimously confirmed.

on in regard to the case of ex-Deputy City Treasurer Rodman, and the result of the examination show $98,930 short in the city funds, and $60,000 in those of the board of education. It was discovered during the investigation that up to January, 1873, a deficiency of half a million had existed.

In conclusion, he stated Sprague had turned over all his property to the city to be sold.

A resolution was adopted directing the corporation council to take action against John Pat-

THE TURF.

Races at Lexington, Kentucky.

LXINGTON, Sept. 9.—The first race, mile heats, for all ages, for purses of $200, was won by Dusty, time—1:46½, 1:46½, 1:46½, 1:46½.

The race for colts, stakes for two year olds, 3 each, play or pay, $250 added, three quarters

FALL MEETING AT POINT BREEZE.
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9.—The opening of the all meeting of the Point Breeze Park Association took place to-day. In the 2:30-minute purse now Ball—who was sold in the field—won, and in the 2:30-minute purse Honest Billy, who was his favorite at heavy odds, was easily beaten by the Boston mare Mary A. Whitney.
Summary—Mary A. Whitney, 2, 2, 1, 1, 1; Honest Billy, 2, 1, 2, 2, 4; Star, 1, 2, 2, 2; Win-

PROSPECT PARK MEETING.
NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—The fall meeting of the Prospect Park racing association commenced today. The weather was fine, and the track in excellent condition.

The third race, a dash of a mile and a half, for three-year olds, was won by Jones' Maid, of Orange; Galway second, and Cariboo third, time, 2:44½.

THE PLAINFIELD FAIR RACES.
HARTFORD, Sept. 9.—At Plainville Park, in the race for $2,000, open to all horses that never beat 2:27, Huntress won the first, third and fourth heats, and Little Longfellow was distanced in the first heat. St. James won the second heat. Time, 2:27 1/4, 2:27, 2:27 1/4.

THE YELLOW FEVER.
Abatement of the Epidemic in Galveston

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 9.—The following dispatch was received to-day from Shreveport, La.

We return our sincere thanks to the Howard Association of New Orleans for their kind offer, and say that the fever is epidemic and on the increase, and that we should be glad to have experienced nurses, but we have not the means at present to compensate them. We also require five physicians.

L. A. SIMMONS,
President Howard Association.
H. S. LINDSEY,
President Board of Trade.

BILLIARDS.

A Remarkable Game in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Sept. 9.—The most remarkable game of billiards on record was played at Kingsbury hall to-night, between Geo. Slossom and John Rescensee, both of this city. The game was a four-half gains, on a carbon trace; 2,000 points up; stakes, $550 a side, and was won by Niessom in 1:10 by the following extraordinary score: Niessom, 963, 444, 75, 534, 48, 43, 4, 167, 0, 43, 4, 165, 93; total, 2,001. Henesque, 30, 108, 0, 51, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 3, 0, 9, 2, 9, 3; total, 216.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

— Gold closed at New York yesterday at 111½.

— A police captain of New York is to be tried this week for blackmailing the social evil.

— The contestants for the amateur regatta income off at Saratoga on Thursday and Friday are coming forward rapidly.

— The Indianapolis exposition will open to-day. A number of fine paintings have arrived from Philadelphia and other cities.

— Three German sailors, of the steamer Krow Prinz, were arrested in New York yesterday, for drinking and disorderly conduct.

- Jacob Schoenwelf, a saloon-keeper in Newark, N. J., yesterday struck Jacob Linth, his carman, a heavy blow, causing almost instant death.
- The officials of the Brooklyn Trust Company yesterday issued a circular denying the statements that the company was unable to meet all its liabilities.
- The frigate Constellation, with the naval cadets on board, arrived at Fortress Monroe — Thomas L. Busely dropped dead at Atlanta, Ga., on Monday, of heart disease, on McDonough street; and Willis Payne dropped dead yesterday morning on Peters street.

— Com. Meade and other officers visited the President yesterday with an invitation to join them in celebrating the anniversary of the capture of the city of Mexico.

— There were 286 deaths in Philadelphia last — Yesterday morning, at Baltimore, the body of Dennis O'Connell, a native of Ireland, was found floating in the water at the depot wharf foot of Chesapeake street, Canton. It is supposed he accidentally fell into the water.

— In Williamsburg, N. Y., yesterday morning while the Seventy-first regiment was passing through Fourth street, a balcony crowded with spectators suddenly broke down, and all were precipitated to the sidewalk. One person was killed and fifteen more or less severely injured.

—Among the projected monuments in the New York Central Park are those of William H. Seward, Daniel O'Connell, Elias Howe, Jr., Robert Burns and Kosciuszko. The means for the erection of the statues of Seward, Seward and Howe have been secured, subscriptions are being received for those of O'Connell and Burns and a subscription is about to be started for the

The annual meeting of the American Public Health Association will begin in New York City Thursday, November 11, rather than at Providence, R. I., during the present month, as was proposed at the last meeting at Cincinnati. The postponement is due to the continuance of cholera in the Northwest, which it is proposed to discuss at length after a further time if studying it has elapsed. The circulation has issued 75,000 copies of a tract on the sanitary methods to be taken to prevent the disease.